

WR Band Boosters Meeting Minutes 10 June 2008

Jim Tigerthal, Vice President, standing in for President Billy Miller, opened the meeting:

- Welcome and thanks for coming.
- Billy Miller could not be present, therefore Jim serving for him.

Rose Soriano – time to start getting things ready for the concession stand

- Need to purchase coolers for the upcoming year. Still have some available from last year. We will utilize those first.
- Need a concession person who is willing to learn this year and be ready to step up next year.
- The Ice Cream is gone. They picked up the freezer, but still had ice cream. Need to check into what happened to the ice cream.

Chris Ryals, Assistant Band Director

- Showed the new drums that had just arrived.
- Check for student money is in.
- Gas raffle during band camp with the drawing during family day.

- Case for drums and new stands
- Covers will stay on the drums until halftime and put back on after halftime.
- The stands will be used in stands
- $3000 came from the school system the rest from the boosters.
- Drums included are

Todd Howell, Director of Bands

- Print cartridges – We need someone to responsible for collecting the cartridges and turning them in.

- Show is great
- The music for the show is on-line and can be downloaded

- Gary Moulet is still our web-master and will keep things up to date.

- Scheduled Competitions include
- Sept 27 at Northgate in Noonan
- Oct 25 at Fayette County High School

- The HOG will be held on Oct 18. Already getting a good response.

- Mr. Howell was pleased with all the spring concerts and the banquet. The students all did a great job. Thank you to all who helped.

- The Next band booster meeting is scheduled for July 8
 - 6:00 pm – mandatory school equipment meeting
 - 7:30 pm – band booster meeting

- The trophies have been moved around the room in combination with the pictures.

- Thanks for everything the boosters have done this year. Wonderful support group for the band.
- looking forward to the new year with 126 kids on roll at this time, which is about the same as last year
- May not have to pay for gas for ball games or other events – still waiting to hear a final answer on that
- The field will be lined off field on July 11

T-Shirts for 2008 Season

- T-shirts for the show will once again be black
- The football shirts will be cardinal
- Looking at a 4 colors print
- bids to be in by June 22nd
- Question brought up about parents being able to buy show shirts as well as game shirts
- After much discussion one idea came to put insignia only on band members' shirts to make them different. Ordering more shirts would also keep the cost down

May minutes were read and approved.

Meeting adjourned.
